The Governor has closed schools to at least May 15th, we will continue to follow the Governor's direction. With that said we will resume our schedule that we followed prior to spring break. Caruso Elementary School will remain as the Keansburg School Districts central hub with all drop off and pick up of needed materials, etc. Other school locations will be closed until further notice. All questions regarding Instruction, Technology, Counseling Services, and other topics should be emailed directly to appropriate staff or call the extension of the school in which your child is enrolled.
