

Digging Deeper into our characters!

Good readers pay attention to...

- * how characters act.
- * What characters say.
- * What characters want or think.
- * how characters respond to events.
- * what other characters say about them.
- * what kind of person that character is.
- * what the character is feeling.
- * how characters change.

* All characters have LAYERS!
Get to know your characters better!!

Good readers understand that characters are complicated. They are NOT just ONE way. Once we realize this we can gather all of our information we have and use it to develop an informed THEORY!

* Based on what I know about (character name).
I now think ...
