

Nonfiction Text Ingredients

Examples: Examples given to support a point

Anecdotes: little "side stories" involving people that the author includes to illustrate the main idea.

Cause/Effect Statements: Any statements in the text that show How & why something occurred.

Statistics: Research studies, facts that include specific numbers or percentages.

Embedded Definitions: Any words or phrases that are defined throughout the text

Metaphors: comparison between two things to show examples