This is Princess, the Destroyer. She is a popular unicorn, who likes to eat animals and humans. In her world Unicorns are the rulers, and each have their own wizard or apprentice. Her wizard Magar, is very terrified of her, and has to be careful of what to say. The text states "Nevertheless, he had resigned himself to making the best of it - at the very least he'd try not to get himself incinerated. This proves that people in Magrus are scared of unicorns. The story even opens with Princess finishing her meal, she was eating rabbits alive. When Max finds the Codex of Infinite Knowledge, the section he is reading is about Unicorns. At first Max thinks of Unicorns as beautiful creatures, that are always happy, and live on rainbows. But as he starts reading he realizes he was dead wrong. Every page get more and more gruesome. The picture in the book showed Princess standing triumphantly on a hill, with a dead creature under her hoof, while Magar stands covering in the background.
